The Jewish Connection

The Jewish Connection is a community-wide book discussion group that meets monthly.

The May meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, May 18 at 2:30 p.m. and will be hosted by Gail Orenstein, at Temple Israel.

The book for May, The Bridal Chair, written by Gloria Goldreich. This historic novel investigates the extremely conflicted life of Marc Chagall and his family, told from the perspective of his only daughter, Ida. According to Amazon, "Beautiful Ida Chagall, the only daughter of Marc Chagall, is blossoming in the Paris art world beyond her father's controlling gaze. But her newfound independence is short-lived. In Nazi-occupied Paris, Chagall's status as a Jewish artist has made them all targets, yet his devotion to his art blinds him to their danger."

"Only Gloria Goldreich could write a novel so grounded in historical truths yet so exuberantly imaginative. The Bridal Chair is Goldreich at her best, with a mesmerizing plot, elegant images, and a remarkable heroine who...will remain with you long after the last page."—Francine Klagsburn, Jewish Week columnist and acclaimed author of Voices of Wisdom

It is not necessary to have read the book to attend. For additional information, please call Rose Haberer at 463-2772 or Gail Orenstein, at 296-4823.

Suggestions and information for this Bulletin are always welcome. Please contact me at bridgejudy@aol.com. Deadlines are usually 7 days before the end of the month.
